RECEPTION TO THE COUNT AND COUNTESS

Wednesday afternoon, at their lovely home on Minnesota avenue, President and Mrs. Lincoln Hulley gave a beautiful reception, in honor of the Count and Countess of Santa Eulalia, who are spending the week in DeLand at the College Arms Hotel. In the drawing room, which was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and flowers, stood the receiving party, consisting of President and Mrs. Hulley, and the Count and Countess of Santa Eulalia. The Countess of Santa Eulalia wore a becoming gown of gray lace, with large black hat. Mrs. Hulley wore white net, with touches of pink. In the dining room at the prettily appointed table, Miss Maysie Emery served punch, and assisting in serving the bon-bons and cakes were Miss Ellen Martien, Miss Eliza Martin, Mrs. Charles Farriss, Mrs. A. L. Suhrie, Mrs. G. P. Carson and Misses Harriet and Louise Hulley. Bushnell's orchestra furnished delightful music during the receiving hours, 4 to 6, and over four hundred guests called during the afternoon. There were many beautiful gowns worn, and the reception was one of the most delightful ever given in DeLand.

Notables among the out of town guests calling during the afternoon were Mr. John B. Stetson, Jr., Miss Thoma-zine Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman and Doctor W. Quay Roselle, all of Philadelphia.

ST. BARNABAS CHURCH.

Quinquagesima Sunday, February 21, Holy Eucharist 7 a. m.; morning prayer 9 o'clock; Sunday School 9:30 a. m.; litany and Holy Eucharist 10:30 a. m., subject of sermon: "The Catholicity and continuity of the Church of England." Weekdays: Holy Eucharist 7 a. m. except Monday; morning prayer 9 o'clock daily except Monday; evening prayer 5 o'clock, daily. Wednesday, Jr. B. S. A. at the rectory 7:30 p. m.

Sunday at All Saints, Enterprise, at 4 p. m., and Monday at 7 a. m.

The subject of the sermon at St. Barnabas Church last Sunday morning was "The Ministry." Next Sunday morning it will be: "The Catholicity and Continuity of the Church of England—(1) Her ancient independence of the See of Rome, (2) Her subjection to that See, (3) Her reassertion of independence, (4) The final break came from Rome, not England, in the time of Elizabeth.

THE VESPER SERVICE.

The Vesper service last Sunday was on the Suffering Messiah. The theme was based on the declaration of Scripture that it behooved the Christ to suffer. The emphasis was placed on the 53rd chapter of Isaiah, which contains a description of the suffering servant of the Lord. It was pointed out that this is the problem of the book of Job, and that it runs all through the Old and New Testaments. Suffering is necessary to redemption. Paul had a vision of this same truth, that it behooved the Christ to suffer.

The chorus that sang The Messiah was on the platform and sang the chorus beginning "Surely he hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows." Miss Ziegler sang the beautiful contralto solo, "He was despised and rejected." Miss Conkling also sang the solo, "There was a green hill far away." The scripture read was the story of the crucifixion. The responsive readings were Isaiah's account of the Man of Sorrows. The hymn sung by the congregation was "The Son of God goes forth to war."

The auditorium was full, except for a few seats in the gallery. It is a beautiful sight to see the platform filled with singers, the auditorium and the galleries filled with people.

The Vesper service next Sunday will be held as usual, beginning as usual at 4 p. m. To this service the people are cordially invited. The subject will be an appropriate one and every effort will be made to make it helpful to the people in living their daily lives. The Vesper Committee cordially invites all who can come to attend.

STETSON GIRLS WIN
AT BASKETBALL

An interesting game of basketball was played at the Gym. Friday afternoon, between the Stetson University team and the Dixie team of Jacksonville. A large crowd was present. The Stetson girls won by a score of 18 to 5.

The young ladies from Jacksonville put up a good exhibition of the game, but the Stetson team simply outclassed them when it came to the finer points. The young ladies from the university had the advantage of having practiced together many times and their team work was almost perfect.

At the end of the first half the score stood 6 to 9 in favor of the university and during the second half they made twelve more points. The young ladies from Jacksonville managed to pile up their five points in the second half. Mr. Roy Hamlin officiated as referee and Miss Kate Walker and Mr. Ed Mickle acted as umpires. The clubs lined up as follows:

Stetson—Bowers, forward; Vigisier, forward; Wright, guard; Anderson, guard; Yoekel, center.

Dixie—Drew, forward; Verdey, forward; Teasdale, guard; Teasdale, guard; Miller, center.

'T WAS A GLORIOUS VICTORY.

There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctors told me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks, I feel like a new man, and can do good work again." For weak or diseased lungs, Coughs and Colds, Hemorrhages, Hay Fever, LaGrippe, Asthma or any Bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial Bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by all druggists.

SHE SLEPT LIGHTLY.

A pretty girl in a hammock slung in an apple orchard awoke suddenly and frowned at the young man who stood before her.

"You stole a kiss while I was asleep," she exclaimed.

"Well," stammered the young man, "you were sleeping so soundly—you looked so pretty, so tempting, I—yes, I admit I did take one little one."

The girl smiled scornfully.

"One," said she. "Humph! I counted seven before I woke up."

The following story illustrates the effectiveness of properly directed advertising:

"I was out at Hoopston, Ill., some years ago, paying a visit," said a gentleman, "when an instance of the effect of advertising came to my attention. The owner of the local paper published this item:

"The business man of this town who is in the habit of hugging his typewriter had better quit or we will publish his name."

"The next day thirty-seven business men called at the office, paid up their subscriptions and left behind them thirty-seven columns of advertising, and told the editor not to pay attention to foolish stories."

"George," chirped the young wife at breakfast, "I read where some loving and poetical husband actually wrote a poem on his wife's biscuits. Now, dear, if you went to pay me a pretty compliment, why don't you write a poem on the biscuits I make?"

"It would be impossible," laughed the cruel husband.

"And why, George?"

"Because the biscuits you make are so hard they wouldn't take the ink."

And then the trouble began.—Chicago News.

If we could deceive others as easily as we deceive ourselves what great reputations we would have.

Advice For Budding Journalists.

What editors want is quality, not quantity. A young man once applied to the editor of a great paper for a job as leaderette writer. A man who can write a good, sensible leaderette doesn't long wait for a job. "Well," said the editor, "let's see what you can do. Here's a room. Just spend a couple of hours over it." At the end of the two hours the editor went into the room and said, "Well, what have you done?" "I have done twelve leaderettes, sir," said the young fellow. "Then I don't think you'll do for us," said the editor. "We don't want a man who can write twelve leaderettes in a couple of hours. Two leaderettes would have been quite enough. Good day."—London Captain.

No Man is Stronger
Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
